Here's Hoping Bill!

By M. L. MAY

Bill Klusman is a windy guy. But maybe he'll be good. He has brains a-plenty, If he'd use them as he should.

For twelve years he's been struggling To win out when we vote, And now he's been elected, To be the people's goat.

He has the chance to do his stuff, Let's see what he will do, And if he starts things out all right, Let's help him put them through.

He may save us some taxes, And coin in other ways, He may start work in the factories, And bring on better days.

Here's hoping, Bill, that you make good, But don't blow your horn too loud, Or you will lose a lot of friends, That have been in your own crowd.
